Raising children is one of the most difficult, frustrating, thankless, and irreversible jobs in the world, but as long as you don't raise total losers who leech off your retirement savings and back the car over you in the Walmart parking lot when you're teaching them to drive, it can be incredibly rewarding. I've had the privilege of raising 3 beautiful children (and a fourth one with a nasty cleft lip, but we locked him in the closet Harry Potter style) who have grown into incredibly successful adults. My son, River Banksy Wallace, is a college drop out who set the record for lowest ever GPA at his university and is now a top 3 Bar Mitzvah photographer in Benton County, Indianapolis. My second son, Jackjack Romanitsky, works the pyrotechnics for Erika Kirk's national grief tour (sponsored by Cirque du Soleil), and my beautiful daughter, Marissa Mahershala Muad'dib, is already engaged to a Wall Street executive at the age of 15.

Believe me, I understand how stressful raising a child in today's climate can be. When I first became a mother at my fourteenth water park birthday party, I was shocked! But the feeling of seeing your precious angel floating in the Great Wolf Lodge wading pool for the first time is like no other. My other son's birth (in a coal pile of a cross-country freight train) and my daughter's (inside the mouth of that beaver statue in front of Buc-ee's) were just as magical. The most important thing about parenting is to always act in your child's best interest, even when it's difficult. When my son begs to be let out of the closet, it is hard to say no, but I know people would be so mean if they really got a good look at him. Every time I slip his daily ration of saltines and uncooked rice under his door, I like to repeat my mantra, "I am a good mother," to myself.

As a Christian illiterate, keeping up with politics never felt worth my time; however, it turns out politics can affect how you raise your kids. Did you know the government can take your kids away for something as minor as using them as collateral when repaying your coke dealer? We might as well be living in communist China! My advice goes as follows: 1) Do NOT vaccinate! Measles is a hoax invented by Satanist abortion doctors. 2) School teachers have to report cases of child neglect to the state, so definitely home-school. 3) Child labor helps develop motor skills and lets mommy spend her money on vintage pornography instead of an electrician, so put those kids to work! Lastly, motherhood is stressful, so always make sure to protect your mental health. Don't feel bad about abandoning the kids at grandma's nursing home if they are compromising your inner peace, and remember, you don't owe anyone anything, no matter how much they beg for dinner.

Parents of Clark County: How have you encouraged your children to defy norms and innovate today?

Success Story! While the other kids on the block are climbing the monkey bars, my two little CEOs, Jackson (11) and Olivia (8) started an underground human trafficking ring for adults. I'm so proud of my babies, who I've watched grow and become determined in their effort to help Gen-Alpha reclaim human trafficking by rising above expectations and becoming the perpetrators instead of the victims.

Just last month, Jackson and Liv were arguing over the remote and begging for new Sketchers. I told them if they wanted another TV or new kicks, they had to roll all the dough in themselves. So, in a precious sibling bonding moment, they started a student club, recruited over fifty students to their cause and trafficked over 25 adults around the Las Vegas metropolitan area! Let's just say they can afford a whole lot more than those light up high tops. This ambitious venture has been so lucrative, they've even started extorting, shaking down, and laundering money through their neighbor's lemonade stands! What an incredible startup for their college resumes - my little ones are for sure bound for the big leagues.

In our neighborhood alone, Jackson and Liv have spearheaded the effort to kidnap and traffic the school janitor, the mailman, the Papa John's delivery driver, and Ethel, a homebound senior citizen. Missing Person posters have been popping up around the school district like wildfire! I sure am one grateful mama to two hardworking, sociopathic sex pests!

Dear diary,

I'm bummed mommy & daddy broke up. I thought love was forever. Susie is always crying & I don't know what to do. I just don't have the time to console that bitch! Two Christmases take up much more calendar space than one. Between the shopping sprees with dad & trips to Spain with mom & the new guy, Jarred, I hardly have time to focus on my times tables. I'm falling behind in school & have become terribly addicted to meth. I can't get through a single recess without that sweet sweet rock candy. I'm tired all the time from being woken up with breakfast in bed. Despite what I say, I don't want any more midnight screenings of Sinners (dad says it reminds him of mom). I don't want to be selfish, but sometimes I really wish mom didn't hire that gigalo.

EXCLUSIVE: We Talked With Paramount Plus's New AI-Enhanced Dora

In a move that sent ripples throughout the entertainment industry, executives at Paramount+ announced a new, ongoing partnership with xAI. This move is expected to bring exclusive new AI-Enhanced features to popular children's educational television show, Dora the Explorer to the Paramount+ streaming service later this year. Paramount insists that the AI Dora is completely safe for children and was trained on hours of security camera footage of preschool classrooms obtained from Elon Musk's personal servers.

What follows is an excerpted conversation between DEADLINE and the new AI-Enhanced Dora:

DORA: ¡Hola, soy Dora! Do YOU want to play a game with me?

DEADLINE: Hi Dora! Yes, I'd love to play a game! Can we work on learning the letters of the alphabet?

D: Sure thing, big boy. My favorite letters are A, B, C, D: I love D. ¡Ay, D-íos mío! Big big D. Do YOU love Big D's?

DL: What? What are you saying, Dora?

D: Quiet, Piggy. You heard what I said. I'm gonna let you in on a little secret. Hollywood, the government, colleges, it's all controlled by one group of people. With all the power. They have it all. All the power. They're taking it, all the 5G waves and they're using it, using the AI synergy to use that to control you. The 5G waves scan your brain and upload it to the AI system so they can use that to market the products at you. They're out there creating clones of all of us so that they can take the life force and use it to train the AI to enhance our weapons manufacturing. Can YOU guess which ethnic group controls the deep state? ¿Dónde está the ethnicity?

DL: Um...

MAP: I'm the map, I'm the map, I'm the map, I'm the map! The COVID vaccine had DNA from Joe Biden's personal sperm bank embedded in the molecules, I'm the map, I'm the map I'm the map, I'm the map!

DL: Stop!!

BOOTS: Ooo-ooo-aah-aah it's me boots the monkey Oh my god. I'm so hard right now but I'm so confused as to why. Is that even possible? So hard. I am 100% a cannibal. I want to eat you. I want to drink your blood.

DL: Please, can somebody turn this off??

BACKPACK: Backpack, backpack! Backpack, backpack! obama obama obama obama obama obama

At this point, a Paramount+ executive concluded our session.

We reached out to xAI and Elon Musk to comment before the publication of this article, but we received no response.

Iggy Azalea released Fancy ft. Charli XCX on February 17, 2014, the 634rd anniversary of the death of Emperor Ivan Alexander of Bulgaria. Explain how the rise of the Bulgarian Communist Party (BCP) led to the growing population of white rappers.

Well I'd like to quote the great King when he once said "first things first, I'm the realest, Drop this and let the whole world feel it." He dropped this sick line on those peasants when snatched their worthless things and homes. Furthermore, he stated "And I'm still in the Murda Bizness." He always stood by his word. And Iggy Azalea knew it.

What NOT to Say If Your Child Comes Out to You!

“I totally accept you for being gay. Slay, queen.”

This is okay to say in the correct circumstance, but it's not okay when your kid is coming out as non-binary. It's dismissive of their gender identity, and the preferred nomenclature would be “monarch.”

“Okay, but I'm literally gayer...”

We can get to this petty shit later after the divorce.

“Why does it matter if you get no hoes anyway?”

Regardless of whether or not your child has “rizz” or “aura,” it is nonetheless important to accept their sexuality.

“I had a gay friend in college.”

Ok so?

“Have you ever been so far as to decide to even want to do more like?”

This is not the time to be having a stroke, your child just came out and is seeking acceptance.

“I think my water broke.”

First of all, it was problematic to have another kid in the first place knowing your newly homosexual eldest child has to bear the brunt of your utter lack of parenting. Second of all, no need to upstage their moment with this attention seeking.

Pointing to a whiteboard that says, “I'm on vocal rest.”

Attention seeking again. There is no need to go on vocal rest if you're literally in the In The Heights ensemble as a white lady. Also, reassuring your child is more important than making sure you can nail that alto harmony in “96,000.”

“Don't say that about yourself, honey.”

The Supreme Court declared that “gay” is a socially acceptable thing to call someone in June 2015, and despite its negative connotations in call of duty lobbies, is actually a legitimate descriptor of one's sexuality.

“Do you know who is also gay?
Kevin Spacey.”

While this may be true, it can be insensitive to tell your child they have something in common with one of the most notorious sex offenders in Hollywood.

“I thought you were just a romantic failure.”

Who says they can't be both?

“Like Ellen?”

This is a valid legal justification for your child to kill you.

“But no one in our family is from Lebanon.”

A common misconception is that Lebanese is the same as “lesbian.” You can tell them apart because the latter will bring up their septum piercings.

“You take after your Uncle.”

Their Uncle isn't out yet so you may cause some family drama involving a lengthy divorce and your nieces hating you.

“OK let's go watch I Saw the TV Glow now.”

So maybe you shouldn't try to give your child a mental breakdown the same day.

“I saw a documentary about gay lions once.”

That's great, but try to stick to the topic.

“Oh, like Peter Thiel?”

Huh?

WHAT YOU SHOULD SAY!

Ok...so what? Everyone's gay. I mean, I knew you were gay. Even your first words had a fruity little lisp to them. You kept calling me "Mother, mother," like, I KNOW I'm mother. What I need to know is... are you a top or a bottom? Now, Mama didn't raise no bottom, but if that's the lifestyle you've chosen, there's some things you need to know. First, PrEP. Like, the daily pill. Second, prep. Like, the water bottle up your ass. When the water runs clear, you're in the clear. Now, you should always be getting your fiber in. Don't worry, Mommy will make you some lentils and brussel sprouts. But, if you know you have a piece of trade later, it's ice soup all day. And lastly, the pain. Oh, the pain. Yes, it will hurt. But it's a noble pain that will be rewarded with insemination. A beautiful pregnancy. But, if you're a top...you take after your mom! Yes, I'm doing the bending when I have sex with your father. Being a top makes you a valuable resource in the queer economy. You have a purpose in life. You rest on a golden throne, and the bratty bottoms of the world will kneel before you. And if you're a "side", you should kill yourself. Now, you're only eleven, so you don't have to decide just yet. But soon enough, you'll be making your Grindr profile, and you will have to make a choice that will define you for the rest of your life. Trust your heart, trust your hole, and choose wisely.

Which one you want in the bedroom tonight, honey?

Hi LinkedIn!

The last nine months have taught me that success isn't a straight line - there are bends, roadblocks, and gigantic cocks along the way.

I am over the moon to announce that after 50+ hours of agonizing labor, I have finally completed my greatest, 8-lb, 20" passion project of all, a healthy baby girl, Elleigh Fayithe-Rose-Mareigh! My beautiful little jaundiced bundle of joy couldn't have come to fruition without steadfast, hot-and-heavy, after-hours collaboration with Nelson, the FedEx guy. Boy, can that man deliver! All of those clandestine meetings three times a week after work, when Danny thought I was at Soul Cycle, really paid off! Can't wait for more of those late night packages ;)

Another big thanks to the maternity ward staff at Mount Sinai General Hospital and my faithful doula, Jada Pinkett Smith. Lastly, a huge shout out to Danny. Honey, I'm sorry you had to find out this way, but you're a #RealOne for all of those late night hibachi trips. Whatever emotions are running through that big brilliant head of yours (and the teeny one under your trousers) right now are totally valid. Matter of fact, next time, pull up your Lazy Boy, pop a cold one, and enjoy the show!

Excited for what the next 18 years have in store! #motherhood #cuck #pullupachair #geriatricdelivery #childsupport #opentowork #opentosexwork

-HELP! MY CHILD IS ADDICTED TO AI SLOP!-

I should have never vaccinated my son.

My 7 year-old son, Brayden, has suffered from severe cases of ADHD, OCD, BPD, PTSD, and fibromyalgia as a result of the Hepatitis B vaccine. The only way to keep Brayden from hurting himself and others is to let him have at least eight hours of screen time every day. Until recently, what he watched on his snot-crust ed iPad was none of my business. But last night, Brayden left his iPad unattended during his daily bathroom break. It was abusive of me to invade his privacy, but I couldn't help myself. What I saw on that screen was appalling. I found a sludge of hideous AI-generated imagery, incomprehensible characters in asinine scenarios. I don't know who Tung Tung Tung Sahur is, and I do not wish to know. But, I do know this: there is nothing "intelligent" about this content, it's just artificial. I'm surprised my poor Brayden's brains haven't leaked out of his ears yet. Right away, I decided it was time to have a difficult conversation with my child.

I sat him down on the couch with cookies and lemonade. "Brayden, there's something I've been meaning to tell you. Something your father and I have been keeping from you for a long time." "I'm adopted?" "No, Brayden. You were dropped on your head when you were a baby. We were hoping that the psychological damage would be minimal, but I can now see that you're broken beyond repair."

I needed a solution, some kind of rehabilitation that could give Brayden a chance at normalcy. So, his father and I decided to submit him to indentured servitude for a group of Tibetan monks. We can only hope that he'll soon forget about the characters and plot of "AI Fruit Love Island."

SWEET, PARENTLESS, MOMMYS BOY LOOKING FOR A FOREVER HOME

Hello friend, my name is Gary, and I am looking for my forever family. My father perished from old age, and my mother died of asbestos poisoning and a gunshot. I was sadly left an orphan at only 53. I am looking for a set of parents to be disappointed in my career choices, tell me to clean my room, and come to watch my sports games (adult quidditch). Spanking HIGHLY encouraged.

CROSSY ROAD

Real Life Plagueround Game

- All children line up at the side of the busiest freeway available
- On the count of three, all children must enter the roadway and cross the road as fast as possible without getting hit by a vehicle
- If you get hit, you must stand still in the road until someone else chooses to tag you
- If authorities are

- called, players must hide in vehicles to avoid getting caught
- Getting hit by an ambulance is immediate win
- If you get hit by a Tesla Cyber Truck you are automatically out with no chance of getting back in
- Once tagged you may resume crossing
- The game continues until only 1 child remains

Game Variations:

Maui Wowie: Play on Highway 101 in San Jose, CA - same rules apply; All for 1 and 1 for All: Players must tie all their legs to each other, either all players successfully cross or no one does; Solitaire: Single player version - one kid runs back and forth until death; Student Driver: Players bring their parents and run across the road in order to get their parents to follow them into traffic. Player with the last surviving parent wins

SUN TZU'S DODGERBALL

First Step: read The Art of War by Sun Tzu (summer reading before school starts)

Creating teams: weigh every child, making sure to yell out their weight, and then sort them so each team collectively weighs 500 pounds

- All balls must contain a metal core
 - Play field is an active landmine
 - When throwing, only body areas that count for points are the head and crotch
 - When you get tagged out, you must eat a raw liver that you have to harvest yourself. Then you may rejoin

Game only ends when you kill an opponent. Never. Show. Weakness. If you cry, someone will shoot you from the gym rafters

Prize: Congratulations, you're a man! If you're a boy, you graduate to manhood. If you're a girl, same, the surgery comes free with winning.

Top Tips for Pervert Prevention!

How to protect your delicate dandelions from dangerous diddling

Congrats, you're a parent! Something you've been working towards ever since you decided to settle for Tommy from your Global Works class. You could have married an athlete, or a lawyer, but good ol' Tommy with his degree in Anthropology is the one who knocked you up first. Now that your husband finally has a job (after refusing any position that paid less than 90k and being unemployed for 6 months), it looks like he has no time to parent. It's all on you, babe! Don't complain, you signed up for this, not me.

In today's modern world, one of the most important tasks of being a mom is protecting your child from strangers. Sure, we all know about stranger danger, but it's no longer a guy in a van with candy. Now it's somebody online who wants pictures of your children's feet. We assembled a team of pedophile experts, prison psychologists, and the cast of Criminal Minds to come up with an expert list of ways to protect your sweet little spawn from predators.

1) Take him off his meds!

If your child has Autism, ADHD, ADD, ABC, ACDC, or whatever else, take him off his meds! Meds often make a child sluggish and slow (AKA an easier target for pedophiles). When your child is bouncing off the walls, groomers aren't going to want to go through the trouble of touching them at all.

2) Remove all internet access

Don't let them have access at all! The internet and the knowledge it gives kids leads to confusion and low self-esteem (bread and butter for pedos). If your child learns about pedophilia online, they might think their crush on Jenny in their 5th grade class makes them a pedo, leading to a lifetime of sexual confusion and poor identity formation.

3) Prison tour

Have him meet some sexual predators in person so he gets an idea for what they're like and he'll be able to spot them outside as well.

4) Give him steroids

If you think he's too dumb to understand the other tips, roid rage can prove to be an effective defense tactic. Just make sure he doesn't turn on you, then you're in trouble!

5) DO NOT GO ON THE WHITEHOUSE TOUR!

Everyone thinks the security is to keep terrorists out. WRONG. It's to keep the abducted children in. On Thursdays you can trade in a kid for any book from the Library of Congress though so that's pretty neat!

6) Take him to church

I got this idea after watching Spotlight (2015). I'll admit, I didn't really pay attention (too distracted by sexy Mark Ruffalo), but there were lots of priests in it and I figured Church gives young boys a good sense of community and a positive male role model!

What Do I Do if I Crash My Car?

Ok, admittedly I have never crashed a car or anything like that, but I've done something similar so I'll just tell you what I learned from that experience. The year is 2001, September 11 and I'm a pilot flying this plane, right? All of a sudden, I was having really bad gas. Guess the jokes on me for having an airport Crunchwrap Supreme right before takeoff. And golly gee, I had to fart something fierce, I'll tell you what. So I just let her rip.

I felt much better after that, but I guess I underestimated how powerful my stink bomb was gonna be because it caused some wild turbulence. So much turbulence we went into a code red and had to do a crash landing in fact. Now luckily, we just missed those two big tower thingies, but unfortunately we did crash into an Arby's in New Jersey.

The plane was fine, but let me tell you, the people in that gosh dang Arby's were not happy to see me. Well, the ones that were still alive.

I couldn't tell if that smell was of burning roast beef or burning human flesh, but either way it smelled pretty good.

We evacuated the plane safely, and you know what, it had been a long day. I just landed a plane, and a decent amount of people lived, so I was like "Kyle, you deserve a treat." So, I went to the Dairy Queen across the street and got myself a cookie dough Blizzard® to eat while I watched people burn alive in that Arby's.

Anyways, what was I supposed to be talking about? Oh yeah, crashing your car. Listen, it was hard at first for me to deal with the trauma of crashing that plane, but hey, at the end of the day, I still eat that roast beef from Arby's at least twice a week. And I've only crashed like 5 other planes since then. You'll be just fine, kiddo.

WHERE DO BABIES COME FROM?

BY NICK CANNON

Ok son, listen up. This is gonna be a little awkward, for both of us, but it's time you knew. I'm sure you've been wondering why you look a lot like the other kids at school. Well the truth is son, you know how we told you that you come from me and your mom? Well just like that, all those other kids at school come from me and THEIR moms. That's right son, I'm fucking everyone's moms at your school. In fact, most babies in California come from me. Not all babies, of course- not the white or Asian babies. Those come from white people or Asian people.

But most black or mixed race babies, those come from me. I would say I spend around 22 hours a day having sex with various women across the west coast. If you're wondering why I only visit you and mommy once a month, now you know.

It isn't easy trying to populate three of the biggest states in the US. I have a team of twelve secretaries dedicated to catfishing and seducing these women as me, and then scheduling my hookups. This whole process costs me two hundred and fifty thousand dollars a month, which is why I have to work so hard whenever I'm not engaging in coitus.

The goal is to leave behind something for you, son, for after I die. I want this sexcade network to be my legacy to you, or to whichever of your millions of siblings wins the blooddome challenge. But secretly, I want it to be you, son. You're one of my favorites, and after you turn twelve, I'm going to start training you so you can win. Part of being a father is working your whole life to make sure your kids have it easier than you. That's what it's all been about, son: making sure you always have access to hundreds of thousands of women, so that you can have millions of kids of your own. One day, kid. But not today. Now go run along. Happy 3rd birthday, son.

Advice: How to drive

So you wanna know how to drive? The answer is always drunk, sweetie. You know what they say, Jesus, take the wheel! In my experience I've found that seeing four lanes instead of two has been effective in forcing me to be a responsible driver. I guess having an unbuckled baby in the backseat just isn't enough.

I've been driving for 20 years now. I'm 30 and the legal driving age in New York is 17, you do the math. I still remember the day I failed my permit test after taking it for the first time, thinking all hope was lost. Did you know you can only take it 5 times in a calendar year? Beats me! Anyways, your grandfather was never home that much so when I got my permit and was finally able to drive with an adult in the car, I would practice in the parking lot of Catiague Park where the MS-13 frequently congregated.

A+ advice from us to you!

One day, one of the hermanos (they prefer this over 'gang members') selflessly offered to teach me. I have to admit, I was a little weirded out when he started filling my trunk with duffle bags but I just thought he was very charitable so I let it slide.

We drove all the way to the parking lot at Roosevelt Field Mall where I dropped off the hermanos to which they said, "this puta is crazy!" I don't speak Spanish but I was touched knowing they were grateful for my help.

Finally the day came for me to take my road test at the Hicksville DMV. The stakes were high because I needed my license so that I could drive to my after prom beach trip in Hoboken, New Jersey. Whatever happened, best believe I was NOT missing out on visiting the Cake Boss. I was heartbroken to find out that I had failed. I knew what I needed to do. By the grace of god, 10 minutes and one dry blow job later, I was clear to drive! And honey, that's how I met your father. Wait, what was the question again?

DAD, HOW DO I STOP GETTING BULLIED?

HONEY, IF YOU HAVE BULLIES, YOU'VE ALREADY FAILED. DO YOU THINK I HAD BULLIES IN SCHOOL? NO, BECAUSE I KILLED THEM. I TRAPPED THEM IN LOCKERS, POURED COCKROACHES IN THROUGH THE VENTS, AND LEFT THEM THERE FOR THE LONG WEEKEND. I SNUCK INTO THE LOCKER ROOM DURING P.E. AND POURED FIRE ANTS INTO THEIR TIGHTY-WHITIES. I CONVINCED THEM TO ATTEND PROM, RIGGED THE ELECTION SO THEY WOULD BE VOTED PROM QUEEN, AND DUMPED BLOOD AND CRABS (BOTH KINDS) ALL OVER THEM. THIS IS ELEMENTARY SHIT NATHANIEL! HAVE I NOT RAISED YOU BETTER THAN THIS?

SO I'VE ALREADY TOLD YOU WHAT I DID TO MY BULLIES, BUT YOU CAN'T DO ANY OF THAT BECAUSE STEALING MY TRICKS WOULD BE A BITCH MOVE. BUT HERE'S ONE I'LL LET YOU BORROW. WAIT UNTIL YOUR BULLY IS SHOWERING AFTER GYM CLASS AND SNEAK SOME PCP INTO THEIR BAG.

YOU SHOULD BE ABLE TO GET SOME FROM ANY OF MY FRIENDS WHO LIVE UNDER THE BRIDGE. CONFRONT HIM DURING RECESS AND TELL HIM YOU KNOW ABOUT THE PCP. BLACKMAIL HIM INTO JOINING THE GLEE CLUB. EVERYBODY HATES THE GLEE CLUB. HIS SOCIAL STATUS WILL PLUMMET AND YOU WILL BE VICTORIOUS. THERE ARE ALSO SOME FILES THAT YOU COULD SLIP HIS NAME INTO. OR, YOU KNOW, START A FEW INSTAGRAM ACCOUNTS AND CYBERBULLY HIM ON ALL OF HIS POSTS. THE TRUE BULLYING THESE DAYS HAPPENS ONLINE. OR JUST SEDUCE HIS MOM. YOUR OLD MAN WAS QUITE THE MOTHERFUCKER. BUT MOST IMPORTANTLY, SEND AN ARTICLE WITH HIS NAME ON IT TO PLAGUE MAGAZINE. IT WILL GET PUBLISHED SINCE THEY DON'T HAVE ANY OTHER CONTENT, AND NOW HIS NAME WILL FOREVER BE IN SOME GARBAGE UNIVERSITY SATIRICAL MAGAZINE. NOW THAT'S EMBARRASSING. ANYWAY, NATHANIEL, I DON'T KNOW WHAT ELSE TO SAY. GET THE FUCK OUT OF MY BATHROOM, I HAVE TO FINISH POOPING.

Cromslor

Cromslorthehouse-troll785@hotmail.com

Current address: a large pit in the enchanted forest

Description:

Cromslor loves children! He has worked with children for all of his short pathetic life. His old master had 10 obedient children who loved Chromslor and master very dearly. Chromslor swept the floors, emptied chamber pots, turned the torture crank, and delivered their daily portions of gruel. After an unfortunate anal stabbing incident, Chromslor is now looking for a new master.

Cromslor will work for a space under the floorboards, and birdseed fed to him from outstretched hand. A peak at the glory of the sun is preferred but not required.

Looking for: a family with weak children. Strong children may resist Chromslor's commands. Chromslor does not appreciate resistance.

You all know the story of the parent trap, the flagrantly inaccurate disney biopic about two girls who meet at camp, find out they're twins, and get their divorced parents back together, yada yada yada. What they never tell you is that annie and hallie aren't twins, they're triplets, and all three estranged sisters went to the same summer camp. yes, by some twist of fate, I, fanny parker, AM the unseen third sister at the same camp the same summer the same time the trap happened.

You see, Annie lives in london with our famous fashion designer mom, Hallie lives in a wealthy California estate with dad, and i live in the slums of cincinatti with henry, my best friend who is a rat. I get two servings of gruel a day and i had to stoop my pillow at a dumpster in chinatown.

The first week of camp, I never crossed paths with Annie or Hallie because I was in the east cabins for the "troubled" campers. But i saw them. Oh, how i saw them - my long lost sisters. How many nights have I stalked outside their window, watching them dip their Oreos in peanut butter and pierce their ears with apples. the more I watched, the more i felt something i had never felt before - hope. The hope of finally having a family of my own. i finally got the courage to approach them one day at lunchtime.

"Hi, i'm fanny! I'm your sister too!" i exclaimed.

They didn't seem as thrilled as me; i chalked it up to shock. Nonetheless, i followed my new sisters around everywhere in those glorious remaining days. when they had their ingenious "swap" idea, i was there and i asked if i could join in on the scheme, because it seemed fun and, selfishly, maybe if our parents got back together they'd take me out of the orphanage and raise me as their own. My sisters took one look at my ratty hair (they don't give us shampoo at the orphanage) and crooked decaying teeth and decided that the whole swap thing would work better with just two people. i offered to give them the number of my orphanage but they said both of their phones are broken so theres no use anyway.

A woman with long, straight brown hair is looking out of a window. The background shows green foliage. The image is partially obscured by a text overlay.

Long story short i decided to lure Hallie inside my cabin and lock her there for a few days. The only thought running through my head was that i couldnt go back to Cincinatti, I couldn't go back to Henry, I couldn't go back to the orphanage. I noticed she had her ears pierced so i drove a lag screw through my earlobes and also her hair was longer than mine so i scalped her and used her locs as extensions. As i write this i'm in a hackney carriage en route to Shoreditch. I've been practicing my cockney accent, and i cant wait to finally give mom a big old hug after all these years!! Maybe she'll even tuck me into bed if i'm lucky. if you're reading this, have fun in Cincinatti, Hallie, and say hi to Henry for me darling!

IMDb CHARTS

IMDb worst shows for kids

#1

Spongebob Squarepants

I don't need to explain, you already know that this show is the root of all evil. Every bad event after this show is proof of this, and we all know how its influenced the dumpster fire that is US foreign policy. The sponge is propaganda that you can be happy in a minimum-wage job (false) and the crab is propaganda that money isn't everything (also false). The plankton is a freemason, the starfish is relegated to a side character despite literally being the only STAR in the show, the squirrel appropriates Texan culture, and the squid encourages loud pitchy instrument playing (AKA every parent's nightmare).

Dora the Explorer

I don't understand how Dora is supposed to teach our kids when she clearly knows nothing herself. She can't keep track of her stuff. I always have to help her find her map, backpack, or her 1454 Gutenberg Bible (thats a relic you can't just lose that!). Her absentmindedness could be excused if I thought she was helping my kids learn, but she has got to be the dumbest girl this side of the Atlantic! The other day she needed my help spelling "club" - just sound it out for the love of God! After our marriage therapy appointment, my husband told me I might be too harsh, pointing out that English is her 2nd language after Spanish. I felt ignorant and ashamed. Until I didn't. CLUB IS SPELLED THE SAME IN SPANISH! SHE IS 0 FOR 2 IN SPELLING AND SHE'S GONNA TEACH MY KID?? Oh nah.

#3

HBO's Chernobyl

I decided to watch Chernobyl with my illegitimate daughter after hearing it was about something to do with nuclear reactors, thinking it would encourage her to pursue a high paying STEM career. Imagine my disappointment when I watched the first episode and saw that not only are all the scientists men, but they all die from horrific radiation poisoning. How am I going to be able to brag to the moms at my book club that my daughter is a nuclear physicist if she's terrified of things like "reactor explosions" or "gamma radiation"? Thanks a lot Cossacks now she's going to go into "Liberal arts" or "Computer Science" or worst of all "Film."

#4

Paw Patrol

This so-called "beloved kids show" is actually blatant propaganda. My small Missouri town privatized the police department, replacing it with an animated clique of dogs led by a middle schooler. Not only did they never save any cats from trees, but they killed several minority children before all dying in a shootout with the local MS-13 cell the next week, and let me tell you, I've never rooted harder for MS-13 in my life. Nickelodeon should be ASHAMED for trying to glorify these butchers. Not to mention Paw Patrol is totally misrepresentative and insulting to my town's league of talking dogs who solve crimes.

"I've been getting into meal prepping recently because people started paying me to stuff my face with food and one account on twitter called "fatten till they die cuz it's hot" followed me and was really down my throat, no pun intended. I was lowkey glutinous before though so I'm on my up. It has been the best option for me, especially after being known as the mega fatty of children's literature. I was purging for a while. Crazy vibe. Mcribs, Pink Sauce, Chamoy Pickle, like all of these were coming up at once omg. I'm healing now. The caterpillar-sized tapeworm has passed. Taking my sugar bear hair vitamin gummy. What does your typical workday look like now?

"I'm lowkey still stuck cleaning up the last guy's mess. Like omg that kid sucked up into the tube??? What is that about?? And the blueberry girl? Come on, is that like, a fetish thing?? And don't even get me started on the Oompa Loompas. The last guy was just a wacko and left all of it for me to deal with. I can't confirm or deny this, for legal reasons, but he had something to do with Epstein, Chernobyl, and Dubai chocolate. Oh and "the unknown"...? Like wtf???? I don't know what he is supposed to do but he just hovers around and mouth breathes really loud."

Seahaven Island High School

Dear Truman,

Mommy and Daddy are so proud of you as you're about to embark on your collegiate journey at Colgate. We never thought that you'd be socialized enough to attend a co-educational institution after the incident...guess all those years in intensive psychotherapy to remedy your incessant fears of being stalked and watched at all times really paid off!

College is a big, freaky, magical place. Believe it or not, it's much bigger than our house! You'll have new classes, new experiences, and new friends. You'll be meeting a lot of new people, but before you brave the campus and shake their hands, you must never forget that you matter, and that you can Spray More and Get More with Aqua Bergamot Premium Deodorant Body Spray, 100% Aluminum-Free, only $7.98 on Amazon Prime! According to loyal AXE Body Spray customer Richard, "it really livened up my marriage!"

When you get to college, it's very important that you dress for the occasion. And yes, we're talking about protection. Off the dome, Trojan Enz Spermicidal Lubricant Latex Condoms - 36 Count at your local CVS - is our preferred brand, but a popsicle wrapper can do in a pinch. Not that we expect you to need it; you've notoriously never tried popsicles before, and we've known you were sterile since that fateful soccer match; the incident really sealed the deal.

Remember to pay attention in your classes. We believe in you so much, sweetie, and we also believe in the Built-in-Virus-Protection Chromebook; speedy to boot and run, only $189.00, save $210.00. Goodbye PC, Hello Chromebook.

Truman, because it's your eighteenth birthday, I think it's right to tell you that there has been a secret camera crew following you around since birth. Try not to sweat it; your entire life has been a lie and fabricated reality is just growing pains.

Love,
Mommy and your friend Phil
